

counsel to the Receiver, on behalf of Ulmer & Berne LLP.

The Application requested interim attorneys' fees and expenses of $8,274.01. The period of time for which compensation is sought is from March 2, 2001 through April 25, 2001.

Notice of the First Application was given to the United States Securities and Exchange Commission, the Defendants, and Relief Defendants, and no objections to the Application were filed.

The Court notes that there is adequate information as to the details of the work performed, the person performing the work, the time spent, the hourly rate charged for each person performing the work, and the expenses for which reimbursement is sought. When determining fee awards, the Court considers the time and labor required, the novelty and difficulty of the questions presented, the skill necessary to perform the legal services properly, the preclusion of other employment by the attorneys requesting fees due to their acceptance of the case, the customary fee for similar work in the community, the time limitations imposed by the client or the circumstances of the case, the experience, reputation, and the ability of the attorneys requesting fees, the undesirability of the case, the nature and length of the professional relationship with the client, and finally, the awards granted in similar cases.

The Court finds that the services rendered were necessary and beneficial to the Receiver and the fees and expenses incurred are compensable from general assets of the Estate.

Accordingly, the Court now orders that Ulmer & Berne be awarded attorneys' fees of $7,063 and be reimbursed for expenses in the amount of $1,211.01.
